

Tangier, the new land of opportunities for property investment

The city of Tangier has become, in the opinion of experts, the new land of investment opportunities in real estate sector, says the electronic newspaper WebWire.

In an article entitled by "Tangier, the new Dubai", the newspaper said that by the year 2010, the city of the strait will become the zone of the most important economic activity in the world and a true gateway to Europe, the West Africa, North Africa and North America. In a country that is undergoing rapid changes, Tangier is the epitome of these changes. Necessary funds have been mobilized to develop the region and develop modern infrastructure geared towards the future. Tangier is the ideal city for foreigners looking for property investment in Morocco. In an article entitled by "Tangier, the new Dubai", the newspaper said that by the year 2010, the city of the strait will become the zone of the most important economic activity in the world and a true gateway to Europe, the West Africa, North Africa and North America. In a country that is undergoing rapid changes, Tangier is the epitome of these changes. Necessary funds have been mobilized to develop the region and develop modern infrastructure geared towards the future. Tangier is the ideal city for foreigners looking for property investment in Morocco.

Check out our packs